We always charge our clients by the complexity in the design, so we always send the quotes to our clients before proceeding with the actual digitizing. Our pricing is very honest, we will charge our clients for the work we do for them. We always digitize the wording, we never use keyboard letterings. We always believe that the finest embroidery can be had only if we digitize the wording with our dexterity. We never use auto digitizing to create fast designs, we are bitten with passion for digitizing but we love to create fine embroidery digitizing patterns. So our prices are very honest and affordable, you get what you pay for.
